The Korean Cultural Center of Los Angeles(KCCLA) and The Seoul Shinmun Daily proudly present the “2018 K-POP Cover Dance Festival: U.S. Finals”. This contest will challenge all eligible K-POP enthusiasts in their abilities to dance and sing while utilizing K-POP beats, lyrics, and choreography. The festival will be hosted by MC PK, and we will have ‘The Chorus Game’ with Eddie Valencia. He is the team leader of 2017 K-POP Cover Dance Festival’s U.S.A. Champion. Eddie is going to host The Chorus Game for 30 Minutes and his team ‘The First Byte’ will be performing a special performance during the judging time.

As the K-Pop Cover Dance Festival becomes more popular, the number of applicants is increasing throughout the United States. This year, 213 teams applied, and fifteen teams were selected from among them. In particular, three teams from Florida and two teams from Minnesota are scheduled to compete in the U.S. Final this year.

U.S. Final Winner provides opportunities to experience Korean culture, including participating in the final stages of the Korean finals and meeting with K-pop stars.

This is a special event open to the public.

All friends and families are welcome to attend the event.
