The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (Director Nakjung Kim) & Korean Cultural Center Washington, D.C. (Director Myeongsun Park) proudly present the cultural exchange exhibition called, “One-Step Up” that will take place from January 13th to February 3rd, 2017 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036. This exhibition will be held to commemorate the Korean-American Day.

Since 2014, the Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles has worked with Mexico City to present a cultural exchange exhibition to allow an opportunity for Korean American artists to introduce their art to people outside of California. Last August, KCCLA collaborated with the Korean Cultural Center Washington DC and presented “Same Way, Different Path” at the KCC Washington, D.C.

This time, KCCLA will present the artwork in Los Angeles to give local LA residents to enjoy the art pieces as well. This show is composed of art pieces by four L.A local Korean-American artists and four Washington D.C. Korean-American artists. The works of these artists have been chosen for their ability to share their view of the place where they live through the eyes of a Korean and their continued hunger to follow their passion of sharing their art.

This show is open to the public. If you are interested in attending the opening ceremony, please RSVP at rsvp@kccla.org or call 323-936-3014.
