Free Real-time Online Korean Classes begin on April 14th.

The banner features a blue background with a white arrow pointing up and a grey Korean character '우' (U) on the left. The main text reads 'Free Real-time Online Korean Classes' in white. Below this, it specifies 'Spring Semester : 04/14 - 06/30 (12 Weeks)' and 'Schedule : 7:00 - 9:00PM, Every Tuesday'. At the bottom, it says 'See all the details at www.kccla.org'.

The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles will launch a new Free Real-time Online Korean Classes beginning on April 14th.

A total of eight classes are offered (Introductory Korean, Basic A, B, Intermediate A, B, C, and Advanced A, B), registration is only possible online at www.kccla.org beginning on April 7th on a first-come, first-served basis.

We are also pleased to announce that a free online Korean Level Test is available at <http://www.sejonghakdang.org/sjcu/levelTest/levelGuide.do>. You will be able to get an immediate evaluation of your appropriate level. You may only register for ONE level and transfers between levels will not be permitted.

Each class will be strictly capped at 24 students to ensure the best possible remote learning experience. As with the other sessions, the spring classes will run every Tuesday evening from 7 - 9 pm.

The program is open to anyone 18 or older interested in learning about Korean language and culture. For information, call (323)936-3025, or visit www.kccla.org. /END/
