Online Korean language and culture lecture videos released

The Korean Cultural Center in Los Angeles (Director Wijin Park) will release the KCCLA Virtual Korean Language & Culture Series, an online Korean language and culture course in 10 episodes, beginning Monday, July 6, on its website, Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube channels (www.kccla.org).

The course was planned as an on-site lecture, but was replaced by an online course to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

With content covering many aspects of Korean culture, the videos will provide opportunities for Korean-language learners at the beginner, intermediate, and advanced levels to improve their understanding of the Korean language and unique characteristics of Korean everyday life and culture, and it is expected to be useful as supplemental teaching materials for Korean language and culture education that can be used anytime, anywhere by Korean-language educators at all levels, from K-12 to university and beyond.

※ Episode 1: Korean Greetings, Episode 2: Korean Daily Etiquette, Episode 3: Korean Food, Episode 4: Korean Homes, Episode 5: Korean Holidays, Episode 6: Korean Transportation, Episode 7: Korean Attire, Episode 8: Korean Proverbs 1, Episode 9: Korean Proverbs 2, Episode 10: Korean Proverbs 3.

Wijin Park, director of the Korean Cultural Center of Los Angeles, said, "This project is designed to help foreign learners and Korean-language educators interested in Korean language and Korean culture education to continue to expand their knowledge of Korean language and Korean culture even during the COVID-19 crisis," and "We hope that you will explore these fun and accessible video lectures by Korean language instructors at the Korean Cultural Center in Los Angeles wherever you are, whenever you want." /END/
