The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA), in collaboration with the Los Angeles Public Library and the U.S.-based Sejong Institute, will host a special cultural event titled “One Fine Day: Korean Tea & Craft” on Thursday, August 7, at the Mark Taper Auditorium at the LA Central Library.

This interactive event offers visitors a unique opportunity to explore the elegance and spirit of Korean traditional culture through tea and crafts.

Tea Master Yoonhee Kim, CEO of Tea Classics, will guide participants through the rich history, etiquette, and deeper values of Korean tea culture, creating a calm and meaningful experience.

Through the partnership with the Sejong Institute, guests will also take part in hands-on traditional Korean craft workshops. Additional activities include Korean calligraphy and traditional folk games, making the event accessible and enjoyable for all ages.

Participants will enjoy Korean tea and snacks, experience cultural games, and take home their own crafted accessories and calligraphy pieces as keepsakes.

To attend, please register in advance through the KCCLA website (www.kccla.org) or the Los Angeles Public Library site (www.lapl.org).

Director Haedon Lee of KCCLA shared, “This event is a wonderful chance to experience the beauty and charm of Korean traditional culture. We hope attendees will find peace and inspiration through tea, creativity in crafts, and joy in traditional games.” /End/
