The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA/Director Sangwon Jung) & Photographers Society of Southern California (PSSC/President Alex S. Kim) proudly present “The 18th Photographers Society of Southern California Exhibition: Riches of the land "After Hours"”, which will take place from December 5th to December 20th, 2024 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036.

Each year, PSSC brings together the works of talented artists under a unifying theme. This year’s theme, Riches of the Land: After Hours, showcases over 40 stunning pieces by 12 photographers, masterfully capturing the enigmatic allure of nighttime. The collection illuminates the mysterious yet vibrant beauty of the night and evokes the complex emotions that twilight inspires. Visitors are invited to immerse themselves in the tranquil rhythms of the night and experience the subtle awakening of urban landscapes after dusk.

The exhibition is free and open to the public. The opening reception will be held on Thursday, December 5, 2024, at 6:30 p.m., on the 2nd floor of the KCCLA Art Gallery. During the reception, attendees can enjoy the artwork and have the chance to win one of 100 limited-edition 2025 calendars featuring the work of PSSC members, to be raffled as a special gift for guests.

The Director of KCCLA, Sangwon Jung remarked, “Photographers are visionaries who uncover new meanings every day, transforming fleeting moments into timeless art. This exhibition vividly portrays the interaction of light emerging from the darkness and serene stillness of the night, reflecting the photographers' devotion and artistic judgment. We hope it offers visitors a heartfelt moment of inspiration, comfort, and contemplation.”

The exhibition is open to the public and the show will run until December 20th, 2024.
