The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA, Director Haedon Lee) & Photographers Society of Southern California (PSSC/President Alex S. Kim) proudly present “The 19th Photographers Society of Southern California Exhibition: Riches of the land ” Through the Lens.” The exhibition will be on view from December 11 to December 26, 2025 at the Korean Cultural Center Art Gallery, located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

This year’s exhibition showcases 40 works by 11 member artists, featuring striking images of natural landscapes across the globe, diverse cultural and everyday moments, and notable scenes of Korea’s traditional heritage. Through their distinct perspectives and artistic vision, the participating photographers capture the beauty of nature, the resilience of life, and fleeting moments often overlooked in daily experience.

Founded in 2005 as a nonprofit organization, the Photographers Society of Southern California has played an active role in promoting cultural exchange between the Korean-American community and the broader U.S. public. The Society continues to support the advancement of photographic arts through annual exhibitions, workshops, and educational programs.

Participating artists include Alex Kim, Helen Shin, Jin Park, Kathy Lee, Jinsun Kim, Bugweon Ju, Heebin Im, Joanne Kim, Jesoung Kyoung, Jina Rucker, Haesook Min.

The Director of KCCLA, Haedon Lee remarked, “Photography is an art that allows us to rediscover beauty and depth that often go unnoticed. We hope this exhibition provides visitors with a meaningful opportunity to explore rich narratives of nature and humanity, and to reflect on the precious moments found in everyday life.”

The President of PSSC, Alex S. Kim added, “We are delighted to showcase the scenes and moments our members have captured throughout the year. We look forward to sharing with visitors the emotional resonance and unique power of photography.”

The exhibition is free and open to the public through December 26, 2025. For more information, please contact Tammy Cho at 323-936-3014. /End/
